I should be there by 1 at the hotel. I prefer meeting at the hotel.

For planning purposes can we shoot to be ready to meet on Monday, Nov 30th at 1pm eastern time. If the logistics do not work for someone, we can adjust, but at least we have a target time to plan around. As to location of the meeting on Monday...Tito and Josh have suggested Mt Weather, but Dan and I were talking yesterday and the hotel may be a place that we can meet rather than deal with the security and drive to Mt Weather on Monday. I am open to any option, we will need to coordinate with Tito and Josh since they also want to meet with us on Monday to discuss the GKM session during the RM meeting.

Let me know if you folks like the hotel or Mt Weather option. Once you all make your flights if the 1pm target doesn't look good, let me know and we will adjust.

Thanks,

Eric

Eric, Dan and David – Ronnie and I are trying to change our flights to arrive earlier on Monday November 30. Wanted to see what time everyone else plans on arriving at Dulles. Also, I thought I heard Eric say that the interviews would be conducted at Mt. Weather. Is that still the plan?
